

The Cigna Group completed the sale of the Medicare Advantage, Cigna Supplemental Benefits, Medicare Part D, and CareAllies businesses to Health Care Service Corporation (HCSC). The sale does not include any other part of our business under The Cigna Group, including Cigna Healthcare U.S. Commercial, Individual & Family Plans (IFP), or Evernorth Health Services.

No changes to the way we work together

- First, let me reiterate that the completion of this sale has no effect on our partnership or how we continue to conduct business together – it remains business as usual.
- The deal closing does not impact our coverage, services, reimbursement, or relationship with you in any way for your patients with a Cigna Healthcare commercial or IFP benefit plan.
- You should continue to see and treat patients with a Cigna Healthcare commercial or IFP benefit plan as you do today, with no changes to our coverage, services, ID cards, or any other offerings.

This sale is a strategic step to drive further innovation in support of our customers and all our partners. The Cigna Group remains fully committed to providing the high-quality access to care and services you and our customers have come to expect.

Additional information about HCSC and what it may mean to you

By way of background, HCSC is the country's largest customer-owned health insurer, serving members for nearly a century, with a commitment to expanding access to quality, affordable care for the Medicare-eligible population. They are well positioned to continue to grow and enhance the Medicare and CareAllies offerings, as well as maintain the level of service we bring to our customers and partners today.

To learn more about the deal closing and what it may mean if you offer services to patients with a Cigna Healthcare Medicare Advantage benefit plan, please review the Medicare Advantage Provider Newsroom article and related FAQs, contact your aligned Cigna Healthcare Medicare Advantage Provider Relations representative (if applicable), or call Cigna Healthcare Medicare Advantage customer service at 800.230.6138.