

New tools from SVMIC to make compliance more convenient.

Join our webinar as we introduce the new SVMIC Compliance Center to our policyholders.

Because we recognize the importance of compliance to our members, SVMIC is proud to launch our new Compliance Center featuring new courses related to medical practice compliance. Based on the latest research and education trends, the new Compliance Center provides two sets of education for both staff and for medical practice Safety Officers. Staff can choose from courses that practice employees need annually, and Safety Officers will be provided a customizable OSHA manual as well as training courses made specifically for them, all offered online with the ability to complete in the comfort and convenience of your own office.

In this webinar, we will walk attendees through all of the new offerings and answer any questions that arise. We look forward to sharing our new compliance programs with you!
